EVERYTHING YOU WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT MAY MORNING 2009

May Morning this Friday!

Not a morning person? Then why not stay up all night? See Kips (left) for lots of ways to keep entertained!

Singing from Magdalen Tower will be at 6am for 7 minutes, as ever.

Magdalen Bridge will be closed from 4am - 7.30am. This includes the area from the east side of Magdalen College tower to the Plain. There will be access for 8000 people to a "Controlled Zone" (probably Magdalen Bridge - Longwall Junction) within earshot of the choristers. This tends to be getting full by 5am.

Longwall Street, the High Street and Merton Street may be closed to vehicles for any portion of the time between 4am and 8.30am. Buses from Cowley and Headington usually reach the city via the Iffley Road-Donnington Bridge-Abingdon Road route.

St John's College Choir will sing Madrigals from the tower in Front Quad, St John's, St Giles, "around 7am".

This year's Morris Dancing will begin about 6.10am in Radcliffe Square, then will move, when the bell-ringing starts in St Mary's, to the end of New College Lane and to Broad Street. At about 7.30am there will be a further move to a spot outside St John's, where dancing will continue until about 8.30am. There will then be a break for breakfast. The City and University sides will be dancing at St Ebbe's school some time between 11am and noon and other sides may be found around the City Centre. At 12 noon dancing will resume in North Parade, from both Oxford City Morris and The Ancient Men, with guests Long Crendon Morris and Charlbury Morris, aided by a barbecue and sword dancing.

Morris Dancing at Aristotle Lane will commence at 6am - and there's usually a May bull involved.

Something missing?
There's still time to get it online!
