This is my Daddy and me. My name is Gabriel and I am 3. My mummy is being sent back home as she stayed too long in the UK and I won't be seeing her soon which is very sad. My daddy is disabled but does the best he can to care for me and we both love each other very nuch and want to stay together. Daddy is a musician who had an accident in 2009 breaking his knees, but he walks fine with a stick and we have a lot of fun together. We need to move and we hope to move to Oxford so that I can start my school there - I am being tested currently for autism which is scary but I am a very happy and sweet baby - so daddy says. We are both hoping some kind person can help us with accommodation for
